

CONGREGATION B'NAI HARIM
HIGH HOLIDAY RESERVATION FORM
B'nai Harim High Holiday Services, September 2016

Dear Congregation B'nai Harim at the Nevada County JCC members, guests and visitors,

This letter invites you to join us for High Holiday services. We welcome you and thank you for joining us during our High Holiday observances led by Rabbi David Azen.

The 5777 / 2016 High Holiday services schedule is:

Rosh Hashanah

Erev / Evening Service: Sunday, 10/2/16 7:30 pm

Morning Services: Monday, 10/3/16 10:00 am

Tashlich: 12:30 pm

We gather shortly after the conclusion of morning services at the Swiss House parking lot, 535 Mill St, Grass Valley (restaurant currently closed and for sale).

Yom Kippur

Kol Nidre / Evening Service: Tuesday, 10/11/16 7:30 pm

Morning Services: Wednesday, 10/12/16 10:00 am

Yizkor / Remembrance Service: 4:00 pm

Community Break-fast (challah, wine, and other drinks
Provided by B'nai Harim, attendees are welcome to bring a dish or favorite fast breaking snack to share)

We truly value your membership and require non-member adults to have a reservation. Dependent children or children returning home from college for the holidays are invited and welcome to attend without a reservation. Visiting relatives and/or friends, or Temple members from outside this community who belong to another Congregation may use their admission from their Congregation, or bring a letter with their Temple letterhead stating that they are members for free reciprocal admission to our services.

For guests and visitors, we ask for the following donation with your reservation:

2016 Services Guest or Visitor Reservation Donation

- $25.00 per person to attend one holiday day
- $50.00 per person to attend one full holiday
- $100.00 per person to attend both holidays

Our High Holiday services, like all of our worship services and activities, are open to all, regardless of financial means. No one is turned away for lack of funds. We do still ask for reservations so we can best accommodate the number of people attending. Please contact Jan Brenner. If you are more comfortable talking to the Rabbi about your needs, please contact Rabbi David at Rabbidavid1818@gmail.com or 916-267-4464.
